

BUSINESS

The Patriot Ledger

PATRIOTLEDGER.COM ■ THURSDAY, APRIL 9, 2015

21

GOOD WORKS

Corporate contributors to the community

Massachusetts General Hospital Cancer Center with a Navy SEAL mentor for a day of indoor rock climbing.

HERB CHAMBERS GIVES $225,000 TO JIMMY FUND

The Herb Chambers Cos. have committed to a yearlong campaign as an official partner of the Jimmy Fund, supporting Boston's Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. Chambers has pledged an initial gift of $225,000, and will continue to offer customers the chance to buy Boston Red Sox/Jimmy Fund license plates. To coincide with Jimmy Fund Awareness Month in August, Chambers dealerships will accept financial contributions to the Jimmy Fund from customers and will match those gifts up to $225,000.

JP FUJI GROUP TAKES PART IN FUNDRAISER FOR JOSLIN DIABETES CENTER

Quincy's JP Fuji Group and 26 other restaurants took part in the Joslin Diabetes Center's 11th annual Taste of Ginger fundraiser. Chefs Jimmy Liang and Peter Tse, founders of the JP Fuji Group, prepared an array of sushi for hundreds of guests at the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, where the Taste of Ginger event was held. The proceeds will benefit the Joslin Diabetes Center's Asian-American Diabetes Initiative.

■ OneSummit founder Adam La Reau, left, and Michael Galvin of Granite Telecommunications at a OneSummit fundraiser.

GRANITE AIDS PROGRAM FOR KIDS WITH CANCER

Michael Galvin, Granite Telecommunications' general counsel, helped raise $5,883 for OneSummit, a non-profit mentorship program for children fighting cancer. OneSummit was founded by former U.S. Navy SEAL Adam La Reau. The money raised by Quincy-based Granite Telecommunications will be put toward One Summit's Climb for Courage program, which matches children from the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and the