Quincy, Mass.-based Granite Telecommunications LLC will have a grand opening for its newly renovated and expanded office at 11 a.m. today at 900 Circle 75 Parkway, Suite 225 in the Cumberland area. The company's Chief Operating Officer Rand Currier will lead ceremonies. The event will include a ribbon cutting and tours of the office, which has space for up to 60 employees.

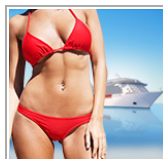

A start-up with fewer than 25 employees just a decade ago, Granite has grown rapidly since then. It now has more than 1,200 employees and reached $900 million in annualized revenue.

Granite provides communications products to multi-location businesses throughout the United States and Canada. Granite's core services are local and long distance telephone services, which Granite centralizes and offers a single point of billing and contact for its customers over incumbent carrier networks. Granite also offers an array of other communications products, including broadband data, network and voice services, inside wiring and alarm and security and monitoring installation and services.
