

GOOD WORKS
.....
Corporate contributors to the community

GRANITE TELECOMMUNICATIONS GIVES TO AID THE HOMELESS

Following the opening of its new sales office in Florida this month, Quincy telecommunications company Granite Telecommunications made a $6,219 donation to Lord's Place, a Palm Beach-based non-profit that assists the homeless. Granite Telecommunications employees donated the money during two "dress-down days." The presentation was made by Greg Giambalvo, Granite's regional manager in Florida.