

The Patriot Ledger

Boy Scouts to honor three at Quincy breakfast

By Cady Vishniac

Posted Jun. 2, 2014 @ 3:30 am

Updated Jun 2, 2014 at 3:33 AM

QUINCY – At Mayor Thomas Koch’s annual breakfast June 16, the Boston Minuteman Council of the Boy Scouts of America will hand out Good Scout Awards to Rob Hale, CEO of Granite Telecommunications, and Stephen Jay Wessling, CEO of Wessling Architects.

A special presentation will also be made to U.S. Rep. Stephen Lynch, who represents the 8th District.

With the Good Scout Awards, the Boston Minuteman Council annually recognizes two community members for their service in support of scouting.

Previous recipients include Norfolk County Sheriff Michael Bellotti, former state Treasurer and Quincy City Councilor Timothy Cahill and state Sen. John Keenan.

Anthony Agnitti of Agnitti Insurance and Thomas O’Connell, president of Marina Bay Management Services, co-chaired the committee that chose this year’s honorees. Both men are past recipients of the Good Scout Award. The committee also includes Charles Phelan, Maralin Manning, Chris Hanson, Robert Bosworth, Ray Theberge and Marianne Peak.

The Granite Links Golf Club will host the breakfast, which begins at 8 a.m.

Reach Cady Vishniac at cvishniac@ledger.com.